

VEBA/HRA Guide

*Issued from the Human Resources
Office November 2023*

What is a VEBA HRA

The VEBA is a great benefit! Your employer deposits funds into a VEBA account, which is a tax-exempt irrevocable trust arrangement. It's paired with a Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) which allows you to use the VEBA funds for current or future out-of-pocket health-related expenses. The VEBA HRA doesn't replace your group health insurance plan. It works with your plan to provide additional coverage.

Did you know that VEBA assets are protected from creditors?

Active Employees

Use money in your VEBA HRA to pay health plan deductibles, co-pays and coinsurance as well as prescription drugs and certain insurance premiums. Don't worry. If you don't spend all of the funds in your VEBA HRA by the end of the year, your balance will simply roll into the next year. You'll accumulate funds over time which means you'll have money to pay for health expenses when you retire.

Post-retirement

Your employer can contribute funds to help you, your spouse and eligible dependents pay for medical expenses even after your retirement. That's pretty generous! Use your post-retirement VEBA funds to pay for certain medical premiums and long-term care premiums. Your employer can choose to make contributions throughout your working life or convert accumulated unused sick time, vacation, severance money, or other longevity-based benefits.

Tax Advantages

VEBA is a tax-advantaged account so you aren't taxed on your employer's contributions to it. Plus, your VEBA accrues interest that grows on a tax-free basis. Since VEBAs have to be used for eligible medical expenses, your distributions are tax free, too. Money goes in tax free, is invested tax free, and comes out tax free.

Full Coverage

All medical expenses defined under IRS Code Section 213(d) are eligible under your VEBA HRA including:

- Co-pays, prescriptions, over-the-counter medications, and deductibles
- Dental, medical, and vision services
- Medicare Part B and D
- Medical supplies and equipment

	No VEBA	VEBA
Initial Deposit	+$25,000	+$25,000
Federal Income Tax (appx. 25%)	-$6,250	-$0
FICA Tax (appx. 7.65%)	-$1,912	$0
Amount you get	$16,838	$25,000

A Few Guidelines

- VEBA is an acronym for Voluntary Employees' Beneficiary Association. It is a type of trust used to hold plan assets for the purpose of providing employee benefits. VEBAs are authorized by Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(9).
- A VEBA may only be funded with employer dollars; employees may not contribute.
- You may use funds in the VEBA HRA to pay for eligible medical expenses now or in retirement.
- Unused funds roll over from year to year.
- You have the option to invest a portion of your unused funds in the market which is a great way to save for retirement.
- Funds in the accounts continue to grow until claims are processed and funds are withdrawn.
- You may submit claims for reimbursements one of four ways: Online, Mobile App, Fax, or US Mail. You may also access your funds with the Benefit Card which works just like a credit or debit card.
- You'll need to submit an insurance Explanation of Benefits (EOB) or itemized statement with a claim form to get reimbursed for eligible expenses.
- To ensure IRS compliance, 100% of claim requests are substantiated.
- We issue payments to you for eligible expenses either through direct deposit or with a manual check.
- The IRS requires the VEBA HRA to be integrated with a group health plan. It may not be offered to employees, or spouses and/or dependents without group health coverage. To comply with this IRS rule, you'll need to verify that your spouse and/or eligible dependents are covered under an employer-sponsored health plan before submitting claims on their behalf. Their employer-sponsored health plan may be with your employer or with their employer.

The Benefit Card

Because you're enrolled in the VEBA HRA, you'll receive the Benefit Card at no cost. It's a quick and easy way to access your VEBA HRA funds.

It works just like a credit or debit card. When you use it at the doctor's office or pharmacy, funds are automatically pulled from your VEBA HRA and paid directly to the healthcare provider. No more writing checks or paying cash. Use your Benefit Card for any qualified health-care expenses.

A Few Details and Tips

- It's in the mail. About two weeks after enrollment, you'll receive two Benefit Cards in a white envelope marked "do not throw away." If a family member throws away the cards mistaking them for a credit card solicitation, we will have to charge a $5 VISA replacement fee for new cards.
- Available Balance. VEBAs are subject to fluctuations in market investments. If an expense is more than your remaining balance, the card will be declined. Visit medsurety.com for more details on filing claims.
- Making a Purchase. Check your account balance before making a purchase so you can split the cost if you'll be short. Use the card for the exact amount in your account, then pay the remaining amount separately. Benefit card purchases are controlled at the merchant level. If your card is denied, it is likely due to a merchant restriction. If that happens, you'll need to use another form of payment. Then, keep your receipts and submit them for reimbursement.
- Three Words: Keep Your Receipts. The IRS requires that you use the card only for eligible expenses under the VEBA HRA. The card is "merchant coded" so it won't work at gas stations or restaurants. There may be times we'll need to see a receipt to verify an expense. If you receive a receipt request, be sure to submit it as soon as possible to avoid having your card suspended.

Pay off your health care bills with the card too. Simply write the Benefit Card number on your statement for services you received in the plan year and send it to your health care provider. Then, send us a copy of the itemized bill from your provider or insurance carrier. (Sorry, it's an IRS requirement.)

What's an itemized receipt? According to IRS rules, an itemized receipt must include the merchant or provider name, description of services received or item purchased, date of service, and amount charged. Canceled checks, handwritten receipts, card transaction receipts, or previous balance statements aren't considered itemized receipts.

How do I view my payment history?

1. On the Home Page of the Claims portal, hover over the Accounts tab and click Payments. You will see reimbursement payments made to date, including debit card transactions.
2. Click anywhere on the claim to see claim details.

How do I report a lost debit card and/or request a new card?

1. On the Home Page, hover over Accounts and select Banking/Cards from the menu.
2. Under the Debit Cards column, click Report Lost/Stolen or Order Replacement and follow instructions.

How do I get my reimbursement quickly?

The fastest way to get your money is to sign up for direct deposit to your personal checking account. To sign up online:

How do I reach MEDSURETY for additional assistance?

Call our highly-trained US-based Customer Service team at 1-888-816-4234 anytime Monday through Friday from 8 am to 5 pm CST. You may also send email inquiries to customerservice@medsurety.com.

Why do I need receipts for things I buy with the Benefit Card? There will be times when we’ll require a receipt to comply with the IRS guidelines. It’s best to send an itemized statement or Explanation of Benefits (EOB) from your insurance carrier so we can verify the service you received complies with IRS rules.

Sometimes the bill from your doctor or dentist doesn’t provide enough information to show that the services are eligible for reimbursement. In such cases, we’ll need to see an itemized receipt. For example, if you use the benefit card at the dentist, was it for a cleaning, which is eligible; or for teeth whitening, which is ineligible? If it’s unclear, we’ll send you a receipt request. We’ll send out three notices asking for receipts. If we don’t receive the receipt/documentation, we’ll have to temporarily deactivate your Benefit Card until we receive the information required by the IRS.

Why do I need to sign a release for you to speak with my spouse or family member?

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) was created to protect your health information and safeguard individually identifiable information, called protected health information or PHI. Under HIPAA, we can only discuss PHI with the individual patient and/or primary plan member unless you authorize us in writing to share the information with someone else, like your spouse. So, even if you tell us it’s OK to share PHI with your spouse, we can’t legally discuss any information with him/her unless you sign the authorization. For your convenience, you may find an authorization in this enrollment kit and at bpas.com.
